

City Starts Cleaning Up Fire Hazard

Brush and Grass Fires Great Menace to Safety of Watershed

Work Is Started Under the Supervision of Street Superintendent

At last Thursday night's meeting of the Board of Trustees a letter was submitted by Secretary-Treasurer W. R. Humphries of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society petitioning the city authorities to take prompt steps to safeguard Bailey Canyon (the Arboretum) from fire. Mr. Humphries at the same time drew attention to the great danger now prevalent thruout the city from brush and grass fires and suggested the city trustees take immediate steps to protect the community from what might be a catastrophe.

Mr. Humphries demonstrated that a fire at the entrance to Bailey Canyon, or anywhere else on the edge of the city in the hills might rapidly spread over all the slopes of the mountains back of Sierra Madre and cost many thousands of dollars in destruction and damage to the city from muck and eventual land-slides. He pointed out that a duplication of the fire at Berkeley could take place here unless every precaution to prevent it is taken now. Mr. Humphries stressed the point that it is cheaper to spend a few dollars for prevention than to spend much money to fight a fire.

With the letter he transmitted letters from Assistant County Fire Warden James A. Graves and U.S.
Forest Ranger V. P. Vetter. Both recommended strongly that ordinances be adopted requiring spark arresters over chimneys and an approved type of incinerator and rigid regulations governing presence of grass around homes in mountain areas and in the vicinity of highways.

For illustration these experts transmitted many copies of ordinances with "teeth" in them.

City Attorney Baker suggested that $250 be appropriated immediately out of available funds to protect Bailey Canyon and other sections of the city. The trustees appropriated $100 and ordered City Attorney Baker, together with Fire Chief Richards, to draft ordinances embracing the suggestions submitted, to be presented to the board at its next meeting. The trustees likewise acted upon Mr.
Humphries' suggestion and appointed a committee consisting of Councilmen Isaacs, Behlolaevk and Hall to confer with the committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society. This joint committee will work out further preventive measures, including a fire prevention week campaign to be held the week of August first.

On Monday morning City Street Superintendent J. E. Carpenter promptly set his crew of men at work cutting the dry grass along side the road outside the fence enclosing the Bailey Canyon area.
He also cut the grass and dry brush along the road in the flat at the lower end of Bailey Canyon. At the same time his crews cleaned up other danger spots along the streets and roads in various parts of the city and swiftly created a maximum of safety with a minimum of expense.

The scant appropriation did not allow much thoroughness but it reduced the fire peril materially.
The city trustees are reluctant to use any more of the funds in the depleted treasury and therefore are relying for further protection measures upon the fire prevention campaign to be conducted the week of August first.

The campaign is being organized by the Sierra Madre Botanical Society. Mr. Humphries is in charge. The plan of operation is being worked out by Assistant County Fire Warden and Forestry Supervisor J. A. Graves, Federal Ranger V. P. Vetter, Fire Chief Richards and Marshall Keegan.

The city will be thoroughly surveyed by these officials and mapped. All spots with inflammable areas or patches will be marked, both on paper and on the spot.
When the fire prevention week opens every danger spot in the city, be it at the roadside or on private property, will bear a red streamer.

Under the direction of the expert fire fighters all citizens of Sierra Madre will be asked to contribute an hour, two hours or as many hours as they may be able

HOT WEATHER HELPS WORK ON STREET REPAIRS

Street Superintendent J. E.
Carpenter has been giving the streets a good bartering the past week which has taken a good many of the way of motorists. Mr. Carpenter rented a disc scarifying machine from the city of Pasadena which not only peels off the humps but pulverizes the surplus material. This is then gathered up and used for patching material in filling chuck holes. This work is only possible in very warm weather which makes it possible to do a smooth job both in removing the humps and in rolling the patched places down hard.

Father Jerome Returns to Chicago

Rev. Father Jerome, C. P., left on Thursday for Chicago after spending a week at Monte Oliva with Father Peter. Father Jerome is the provincial of the Passionist Order, western province with headquarters in Chicago. The plans for extensive building operations at the Sierra Madre monastery and retreat have been somewhat delayed but have not been given up, according to Father Peter. It is hoped some definite announcement can be made in the not distant future.

Motorbus Is Bought For Junior High

Two Trips Will Be Required Each Way to Care for Pupils

Sierra Madre junior high pupils will ride to and from school in a brand new White motorbus, the property of the high school district. Purchase of the bus was authorized on Wednesday at a cost of $6550.

Two trips morning and evening will be required to transport the Sierra Madre pupils, according to Principal Arthur M. Brown. The registration shows more than one bus load but the district would not be justified in purchasing more than one bus, to remain idle so much of the day. Mr. Brown and the school authorities are engaged in working out the bus schedule in an effort to serve the largest possible number of pupils. In order to make quick time the bus will be limited as to number of stops and pupils will have to accommodate themselves to the schedule.

Assignment of teachers was announced by the board of education on Wednesday. Principal Brown informs the News that he has a splendid corps of assistants and that Sierra Madre junior high pupils will have the very best of instruction. The contractors are pushing the new building to completion and when school opens the junior high students will have absolutely the most modern quarters and equipment to be found.

Mrs. Marie Stanley, who has been a popular teacher in the Sierra Madre school for several years will teach English at Woodrow Wilson School. Mr. Brown
row Wilson School. Mr. Brown considers himself fortunate to have her as a member of his staff and her loss from the local faculty is offset by the fact that Sierra Madre pupils will still have her as their instructor in the higher grade. The complete faculty list is as follows:

A. M. Brown, principal; Anna
M. Magnuson, assistant principal; Gladys Baur, social science; Evelyn Coldwell, English, public speaking, dramatics; Wm. Vaughan Cummings, physical education; Grace L. Dick, librarian, history; Laurel E. Gillette, physical education; Theodore R. Gundry, orchestra; Pauline Handy, English; Adeline Hunt, music; Elva Mae Lee, art, penmanship, spelling; Mary B. Oliver, home economics; Harold Paul, shop; Mildred C. Scott, counselor, history, English; Marie E.
Stanley, English; Charles Stickle, social science; Marjorie U. Wilson, Spanish; Adairah C. Woolnough, commercial.

Mr. Brown is also principal of the Frances E. Willard elementary school which is located just across the street from the junior high.
He has a keen interest in Sierra Madre because he started his teaching career here. About 1903 and 1904 he was principal of the old three-room school at the corner of Baldwin and Central, just in the rear of the present location of the News office.

Arcadia Band To Appear In Concert

Thirty Musicians To Render Varied Program at the City Park

May Be Forerunner of Other Entertainments During the Summer

On Tuesday evening, July 28, at 8 o'clock, the Arcadia Municipal Band will give a concert in the City Park on West Central Avenue. The program will consist of standard overtures, classical music and lighter numbers. There will be solos and novel features.

The band consists of thirty expert musicians under the leadership of H. W. Petersen. Mr.
Petersen and his family, five in number, are known as musical specialists from coast to coast.
They have played on the various lyceum circuits as well as vaudeville circuits. For a number of years Mr. Petersen was in charge of the band work of practically all schools in Oklahoma. His school of music is affiliated with the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts.

Together with Tasker Webster and other old timers, Mr. Petersen wishes to organize a band in Sierra Madre and is anxious to meet the old-timers and others who will join.

The concert is the direct result of the successful celebration recently held by the Sierra Madre Botanical Society.

Tuesday night's entertainment was arranged by the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Sierra Madre Botanical Society. The Arboretum people have arranged for the appearance of Chief of the County Fire Prevention Department R. L. Dunlap, who will exhibit some fascinating pictures taken in the vicinity of Sierra Madre. He also took a great number of pictures in Sierra Madre which will be shown.
Chief Dunlap will give a thrilling talk.

County Forestry Supervisor J. A.
Graves, in charge of all the territory between San Fernando and San Bernardino, likewise will be present to tell some of his exciting experiences.

The Sierra Madre Fire Department under Chief Richards, with its equipment, will be on exhibition. It is urged by W. R. Humphries, president of the chamber of commerce and secretary-treasurer of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society that the community turn out en masse on this evening. The park is very comfortable and those who like cushions to make soft seats are advised to bring them.

This is an experiment to determine if the community is interested in these evening rallies at which all the town can gather in comfort after sundown. If the turnout is encouraging Tuesday evening, regular entertainments will be organized fortnightly or weekly. Come, and bring your friends.

Mrs. Wesley Keough of Pasadena spent Wednesday in Sierra Madre visiting friends.

Kerstings Arrive at World's Metropolis

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kersting arrived in London on June 23, after a delightful trip across the Atlantic, according to a letter received from Mr. Kersting by W.
R. Humphries. They have been enjoying the interesting sights of London where they find many contrasts with American cities.

ENDORSES NEED FOR SWIMMING POOL IN CITY

"I have just been reading your editorial page and I want to tell you how thoroughly I approve that you have to say about the swimming pool question."

It was one of the first phone calls last Friday morning and the speaker was Dr. Lloyd Krebs. The mail carrier had just left the News at his home and he had taken the trouble to express his appreciation while the subject was fresh in mind.

Dr. Krebs went on to say that he recognized the need for an adequate public swimming pool in Sierra Madre, but that the thing must be worked out on a logical basis and in a way that will help the perfect future development of the city. He welcomed the idea that a way now appears to be clearing so that some definite proposition can be formulated and put before the public for approval.

STAG DINNER ON TUESDAY NIGHT AT THE TEMPLE

With a stag dinner and informal evening's entertainment to follow, the members of the Masonic lodge are looking forward to a delightful evening next Tuesday, July 26.
J. N. Hawks, master of the lodge, announces that the last Tuesday night of each month will be set aside hereafter for social occasions. Members of the lodge are urged to come and bring a friend next Tuesday night. The dinner will be served at seven o'clock.

Hosford Now In Hotel Building

Jack Hosford, architectural designer, who has had office rooms with W. R. Humphries at 24 West Central, has moved into the Sierra Madre Hotel Building, and shares the office of the chamber of commerce. Mr. Hosford found this change advisable, due to the need for larger quarters as his work has increased considerably of late.

Just at present he is drawing up two plans of interest to Sierra Madre people. One of them is for Charles Hesse of Los Angeles, who expects to build a Spanish type home in the canyon, and the other for R. B. Busing of Los Angeles, who intends constructing a two-story house at Adams and Grand View avenues. Mr. Hosford is also planning a residence to be built in San Clemente by Mrs.
Frank Royer of East Alegria Street.

Big Still In Residence on North Lima

Parker Claims Innocence On Charges Brought by Officers

Sam Parker of 422 North Lima Street was taken into custody Wednesday night by Officers Keegan and McMillen and held for a hearing before Recorder Forman to account for possession of a still and a quantity of liquor at his residence.

Inventory of the merchandise and equipment, which was also taken into custody included several gallons of liquor in cans, jugs and bottles, twenty-four barrels of mash, a still of 175 gallons capacity and all the necessary accessories.

Mr. Parker denied responsibility for the outfit, claiming that he had rented his house to another person who had taken the equipment there without his consent.
He was only sleeping there, he asserted, occupying a screened porch, and had no knowledge of what was going on inside. Up to a late hour Thursday afternoon he had been unable to arrange for bail and was in custody at the city jail.

Officer Is Thug Victim In Arcadia

Mystery still surrounds the identity of three men who killed Officer Albert E. Mathias of Arcadia in one of the most cold-blooded murders on record in this county. Mathias was shot Monday night about midnight while making the rounds as night patrolman. His friend, L. C. Bortolina, who was riding with him, was wounded when he ran to the assistance of Mathias.

The murderers were sitting in a car parked on Laurel Street near the Foothill Boulevard. According to Bortolina, Mathias stopped his car nearby and walked over to ascertain what they were doing. As Mathias reached the car and made his first inquiry the answer was a fusillade of bullets. He staggered a few feet away, tugging at the gun in his holster, but died before he was able to draw it. Bortolina started to his assistance and was slightly wounded.

Mathias was 35 years of age and leaves a wife and two small children. He had a splendid war record, having several citations for bravery while serving as a dispatch rider in France.

J. N. Hawks and H. H. Mc-Millen attended a dinner given by the Masonic lodge at Temple on Tuesday night. Will H. Fisher of Los Angeles, deputy grand master, was the speaker, the meeting being held in the new school auditorium.

Sparks Quits As Trustee of Sierra Madre

Fitzwilliam Appointed to Fill Unexpired Term of Former Mayor

Trustees Approve Plan to Hold "Fire Prevention" Week

Robert L. Fitzwilliam of 341 Acacia Street was appointed a member of the city council to succeed J. D. Sparks whose resignation was accepted at the council meeting on Thursday, July 14.

Mr. Sparks has considered resigning at several times during the past year on account of his health, and felt that he could no longer give the regular attention to the duties of the office. He has served as a trustee and mayor for several years, rendering conscientious service, and his fellow board members voted to send him a letter of thanks and appreciation.

The resolution appointing Mr.
Fitzwilliam was presented by Trustee Isaacs and seconded by Trustee Behlolaevk. Trustee Hall, who was presiding in the absence of Mayor Topping, concurred and made the choice unanimous.

Mr. Fitzwilliam has been a resident of Sierra Madre the past three years. He was formerly engaged in the real estate business in Los Angeles where he resided practically all his life. He is at present on an automobile tour in Oregon and Washington.

J. E. Wilkerson was appointed a member of the volunteer fire department to succeed A. M. Udell, resigned. The appointment was made at the request of the department members.

A communication from the Sierra Madre Botanical Society called attention to the dangerous fire hazard existing in and near Bailey Canyon, as well as all along the high foothill region. A general cleanup was approved as part of a "Fire Prevention Week" program and the sum of $100 was authorized to be expended under direction of the council water committee in furtherance of the objects of the program.

Permission was granted J. Behlolevk and Henry Isaacs to remove three pepper trees from the street frontage of their property on south Baldwin Avenue, the planning commission concurring.

Maps submitted by Engineer Gierlich for the laying out and opening of Churchill road as a public street were officially approved. The ordinance of intention for the project was given its first reading. The purpose is to give adequate highway connection to the Marlborough Terrace Tract, formerly the Churchill Ranch.

Granting of an easement for the county flood control channel across the city property in Canyon Park where the swimming pool was formerly located was approved as a matter of policy and the chairman of the board was authorized to enter into such an agreement with the flood control department.
The flood control authorities were authorized to proceed at once with the construction and improvement work.

Formal approval was given to the tentative elevation sketches and floor plans submitted by Architect R. M. Finlayson for the new city hall.

J. C. Lauber, park caretaker was granted two weeks leave of absence with pay.

The board adjourned to meet Thursday night, July 21.

TWO PLAYS TO BE GIVEN AT PARISH HOUSE

Two plays to be given at the Parish House of the Church of the Ascension on Friday night, July 29, promise an evening of delightful entertainment. The plays are "Brothers in Arms" and "Speaking to Father."

In "Brothers in Arms" the caste will include David Buchan, Paul Rockwood, Harry Davis and Mrs.
J. N. Hawks. The players who put on "Speaking to Father" will be Mrs. Bradley Metcalfe, Miss Powers of Pomona, Hall Perry, W. C. Gruit and J. N. Hawks.

With such a stellar list of performers the quality of the acting is certain to satisfy the most critical. The choice of plays was well made for the summer season and deserves a full house. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the parish.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Langley returned Friday from a two weeks vacation spent at Redondo Beach and Long Beach.

UNION PACIFIC TICKET AGENCY IS ESTABLISHED

The Union Pacific Railroad now has a representative in Sierra Madre in the person of W. R. Humphries. Arrangements were completed this week through Cliff Farmer, district passenger agent at Pasadena after negotiations started by Mr. Humphries several months ago. Study of the situation convinced the railroad officials that enough railroad business originates in Sierra Madre to justify them in having a regular agent here. Mr. Humphries will be able to sell tickets, arrange Pullman reservations, plan itineraries and render all the other services of the city ticket offices.

Effects of Fall Hasten Death

David B. Allerton, 76 years of age, passed away early Thursday morning at the Pasadena Hospital.
He had been ill several weeks from the effects of a fall, together with intestinal complications. Mr.
Allerton was a chemist and was highly regarded by all who knew him. He had been residing the past year at the home of Mrs.
Sedgeman, 34 North Baldwin Avenue. He is survived by a son, David B. Allerton Jr., of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the Moreland Chapel.

Interesting Report By Librarian

New Patrons, Improvements In Room, Add to Pleasure of Work

To the Library Board of Trustees, Public Library, Sierra Madre.
Ladies and Gentlemen: The year ending June 30, 1927, has been for me the most pleasant one of the four years that I have had in Sierra Madre. Each year as new improvements are added and the work becomes more extensive it naturally becomes more interesting. Handling and circulating new books and meeting the old and new patrons gives and added zest to an already interesting occupation.

The new catalog card cases and the linoleum have been appreciated by the patrons almost as much as by the librarian and her assistant. This year I think an effort should be made to make the children's room more attractive.
A larger reading table is needed and additional chairs.

During the year 43,056 books have been circulated for home reading, a gain of 5,099 or 14% over the preceding year. Eleven thousand five hundred and seventy three have been loaned from the children's reading room. An average of 21% of the loans each month have been non-fiction. It is interesting to note the trend of reading that is being followed.
Next to fiction, travel and biography are in demand but books in all classes are called for. In making the daily reports I find there are books from all the nine classifications circulated. This next year I think it will be worth while to make a record of the number of books loaned from each class every day.

Two hundred and eighty new patrons have applied for the privilege of borrowing library books.

Four hundred and sixty-seven volumes have been purchased during the year. A few of these have been reference books. About 20 volumes have been donated by different persons. Approximately 200 books have been withdrawn from the shelves and 78 rebound. Four volumes of magazines have been bound.

At present we are subscribing for 42 different magazines with three new ones added to the list for the coming year. About six publications are sent to us gratis.

A box containing about 40 volumes was sent to the Seaman's Church Institute when the California Library Association issued a call for books for the sailors.
These were contributed mostly by the patrons of the library.

I am glad at this time to have the opportunity of thanking the members of the Library Board for their cooperation and kindness and especially for their faithfulness and interest in library affairs.

Respectfully submitted, Lulu Moore, Librarian.

Ernest Bockman of the Palm Nursery left Friday on the S. S.
Alexandria for a two weeks' visit to Seattle and Portland.

Seek Sound Legal Basis For Society

Form of Incorporation To Be Matter of Extensive Research

To Function as Educational and Scientific Organization

An important session of the Legal Committee of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society was held last Friday evening at the Los Angeles City Club.

The meeting was called for dinner by Chairman Robert Mitchell and was attended by Messrs. F.
R. D. Moote, E. E. Bacon, Ray L.
Eberhard, W. R. Humphries, Geo.
C. Robinson, Joe R. Eastwood and Arnold Kruckman. The other members of the committee, W. B.
Mathews, Henry W. O'Melveny, Donald Barker, City Attorney Baker and W. J. Hunsaker, were not present on account of a legal celebration in which they participated, but they sent their opinions and suggestions upon the subjects discussed and again pledged their active support.

The main topic of discussion was the corporate form of the Sierra Madre Botanical Society Incorporation has been in process for almost two months but or account of the problems involved in creating a proper organization to cover all the needs of the institution the actual issuance of the charter has not been pressed.

It was brought out in Friday night's discussion that the charteto be obtained for the Sierra Madre Botanical Society will be an instrument for an organization which will be conspicuous throuout the world. It was further made clear that the legal structure created would be designed for an institution which will endure for many years, probably centuries.
The legal talent devoted to its making therefore felt that it should be done carefully and not be, as Mr. Moote phrased it, "a thing of patches."

Aside from conducting the Arboretum at Bailey Canyon which in itself is a man's-sized job, the society will function as an educational institution and as a scientific body. In the course of time it may be the director of exploration expeditions and as the conductor of an outdoor museum and sponsor for laboratory experiments and research work and it will be responsible for an aesthetic influence. In addition to these many major functions and responsibilities it will own property and be trustee for funds and administer funds for educational purposes in connection with work it may do in conjunction with primary schools, high schools, colleges and technical and professional schools.
It will conduct a membership headquarters, will work in cooperation with the City of Sierra Madre, the County of Los Angeles, the State of California and the Government of the United States, as well as other cities in San Gabriel Valley and other counties and states and other governments. It will have reciprocal relations with other scientific bodies throuout the world as well as non-scientific societies. It may publish the results of the studies of its Fellows and make the findings and finished studies of its scholars and experts available to all the world.

These and many other problems confront the lawyers who are incorporating the society.

To get the broadest comprehension of the problems to be covered and to follow the best precedents the committee has sent to every botanical organization in America as well as to other great scientific organizations like the Society of the American Museum of Natural History in New York, the National Geographic Society, the Metropolitan Museum, and others. Charters of all important scientific and educational institutions will be carefully examined.
For these reasons it will take several months to incorporate the society in its eventual form.

In the meantime the legal committee is endeavoring to form a temporary legal body, something like a trust, which will permit the society to function with broader legal powers and capacities than it now possesses.

Another meeting of the legal committee will be held in the near future.

Timothy Smith and his daughter, Miss Madeline Smith of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived this week to visit at the home of Mr. Smith's brother, Edson Smith, of West Montecito Avenue.

And the Wife Went to Visit Home Folks

When the family discussion of the summer vacation trip gets rather heated, let some member of the family take a long breath and read this one-sentence story by Homer King of the Hemet News:

Once there was a prominent local citizen whose wife said to him one morning I haven't been home to see my folks since I don't know when and there's no use for you to object because I've decided to leave right away and pay them a nice long visit and the man was big-hearted and tender and said why certainly dear go and stay as long as you like whereupon his wife said I suppose it will be all the same to you if I never come back and he replied now honey you know I didn't say anything like that for I want you to be happy so she went home and the man hardly missed her the first few hours being occupied at the office but that night the house was depressingly silent with nobody there to nag him about scattering newspapers all over the place and to interrupt his reading and yet he found it difficult to read regardless of the fact that the static had dissipated so he finally said oh hell-fire I guess I'll turn in which he did after devoting one hour and thirty minutes to looking for his pajamas which he was unable to find and so slept in his underwear dreaming of his courtship days and his honeymoon days and that he was stranded alone on a desert island and then the alarm clock woke him and he said pile out old girl and get that coffee brewing but there was no answer and he remembered that his wife was away so he growled hell I guess I'll have to brew it myself and he set the coffee on the stove over a high blaze and when he returned the water had all boiled away without having percolated at all so he poured some luke-warm water over the coffee grounds which gave it the general appearance of coffee if not the coffee taste and the man drank it and his stomach began to hurt almost immediately but he went to work and tried to forget and the second night he sent his wife a telegram saying if you do not intend to start home the minute you read this please come out like a man and say so stop I'm fed up on this business and besides a woman's place is in the home stop to which his wife replied the next day appraised I am just getting good and started so he carried on as best he could until all his linen was soiled and when he was down to his last collar he sent the laundry and after three days it came back whereupon he opened it and found that it had not been ironed and the man said dammit all anyway and he called up the laundry saying where do you get this stuff not ironing my laundry and the girl said your wife always has it done roughly and irons it herself and the man said well cutie my wife is out of town and I have a dinner engagement for tomorrow evening for which I am sartorially prepared with the minor exceptions of one collar one shirt one suit of b.v.d.s. and two socks and the girl said well of all things isn't that just like a man and how was I to know that your wife was out of town she didn't send me no post card whereupon the man answered well babyface cut the comedy and tell me what is to be done about this and so the girl told him to send his laundry back and they would iron it which he did and got it back next day in time to miss his dinner engagement so he sat home alone and drank all the home-brew he could stand and then that much more after which he wired his wife saying have decided to end it all stop hope you will find some man who will make you happier than I seem to have made you stop farewell stop fare-well stop and after two days she wired back be your age stop lay off the home-brew stop whereupon the man rent his garments and refused to shave and discontinued changing his collar and broke up sundry articles of furniture after which he wired once more saying have met a delightful blonde who has promised to mother me until you come home stop have a good time sweetheart and stay as long as you like stop and his wife reached home the next day and they lived happily until the next time she went to visit her folks.

The above attempt to be different is what is known in newspaper offices as a "filler."

Fillers are written on days like this when Inspiration has wings and emulates Lindbergh. Fillers are not expected to be inspired. They need not be humorous. They seldom represent good sense.

As a matter of fact the less sense an editorial filler makes the better, for in such case some kind reader is sure to recognize it as "highbrow stuff" and write a letter comparing you to Sherwood Anderson.

Publicity In State Papers On New Plan

The California Newspaper Publishers' Association, of which the Sierra Madre News is a member, has undertaken the publicity for the Orange County Fair, which will be held from September 5 to 10 on the state highway between Santa Ana and Anaheim.

Marking what is believed to be the first time in which a group of newspapers have sought to control the publicity to which they give free space, the move was decided on after many California publishers had expressed their dissatisfaction with the copy furnished by professional press agents.

If the plan proves a success, the association, through its main office in the Pacific Electric Building, Los Angeles, will undertake similar campaigns for the attractions of community building non-profit nature.

Papers throughout the state repeatedly have shown their willingness to boost deserving enterprises. The line frequently is drawn, however, when a so-called "high power" press agent steals the glory and enriches his own treasury through the cooperative spirit of the publishers.

CYCLE OF SPRINT PHENOMS MAKE HISTORY AT U.S.C.

A cycle of sprint champions has been discovered at the University of Southern California. During the past twenty-five years, a dash star has come into prominence approximately every five years for the Trojans. Charles Parsons was the first. He was national 100 yard champion in 1905 and the first Pacific Coast track athlete to win a title in any event. Waldo Throop, Pacific Coast champion and the first man to employ the "flying leap" which Paddock later adopted, ran in 1910. Howard Drew, the first man to equal officially the world's 100 yards record, was a star in 1914 and 1915.

Paddock broke into the limelight in 1920 and was brightest in 1921. Charles Borah completes the cycle by starring in 1926 and 1927.

DISAGREEABLE NEWS

THE surest way for an editor to get himself called all the varieties of blackguard is to print an item recording the fact that somebody has had to appear in court for running afoul of the law. The newspaper is held responsible for dragging the individual's name in the mud, no matter how simple the news statement of what are matters of public record and common report. The newspaper is accused of singling out the individual for persecution. He usually thinks it is all right to print such news about other people, but not about himself. Perhaps it is natural that the type of mind which expects to violate the law and get away with it should expect to be immune from any newspaper publicity.

Fortunately, or perhaps unfortunately, newspapers do not make news. They have to take it as they find it. Newspapers do not like to print crime news. They especially dislike to record minor violations of the law by people who do not deserve to be classed as criminals.

There are a very few classes of court news which a newspaper ought to omit from publishing. These would include offenses committed by the very young, cases of domestic infelicity, and cases where publication would put a blot upon the innocent victim of a statutory offense.

Other news emanating from law enforcement agencies can hardly be disregarded by a newspaper which feels its obligation to the public. It is doubly distasteful when the publisher realizes that he will almost certainly, even though unjustly, be accused of harboring other than the most kindly feelings toward the persons named.

THE GREATEST STATE

ROGER W. BABSON declares that California is to become the greatest state in the union. This assertion from the noted economist and statistician excites no surprise. It coincides to a nicety with the opinion of thoughtful Californians who have given the subject serious study.

Mr. Babson gives three reasons for the faith he frankly proclaims. Each is so manifestly sound that its merits must be recognized. The first is that people like to live in California. The truth of this is attested by the rapid growth of population, the spread of mighty cities and thriving towns about them. It is shown in the opening of new territory to accommodate arrivals, and the continual erection of houses to shelter them. It is shown in too many ways to recount.

The second reason is that the Middle West is declining, thus adding to the agricultural resources of the coast. There is less demand for stable products such as wheat and corn, but a larger call for the fruits, the vegetables and nuts that thrive here.

The third reason has been recognized by the economic and business world. It is that the Pacific Ocean is bound to exceed the Atlantic in volume of trade. An awakening Orient will be a market of untold capacity, and it will be reached through the harbors of California.

Mr. Babson is not making a prophesy born of enthusiasm. It is his wont to deal with facts. There is no argument by which his views could be belittled. Indubitably, progress is toward the West. Capitalists and the big men of commerce have read the signs.

Incidental to the prosperity of California will be the creation of a vast metropolis. It is not rash to assume that Los Angeles, expanding to embrace the cities that environ it, and the community adjacent to the suburbs, will be exceeded in population by only one or two places on the continent. In the planning of the present, it is essential to keep in mind the necessities of the future and plan so as to fit into urban growth on a stupendous scale.

LETTER BY ABRAHAM LINCOLN (Cincinnati Times-Star)

IN Carl Sandburg's "Abraham Lincoln: the Prairie Years," we find a familiar story which we deemed apocryphal until this indefatigable biographer checked up on it. It is Lincoln's reply to a New York firm which wrote asking him about the financial standing of another man in Springfield. Here it is:

"Yours of the tenth received. First of all, he has a wife and a baby; together they ought to be worth $50,000 to any man. Secondly, he has an office in which there is a table worth $1.50 and three chairs worth, say, $1. Last of all, there is in one corner a large rat-hole, which will bear looking into. Respectfully, A. Lincoln"

Thus tolerantly, humorously, truthfully, the prairie lawyer bore witness to the worldly estate of a fellow struggler in the New West. It was the testimony of a man who would not shoot wild animals or birds, who spoiled a new suit in helping a hog out of a slough, and who must have wished heartily that his neighbor had better office furniture, better luck, and nothing that needed "looking into."

Here spoke the same spirit that animated that memorable phrase, "With malice toward none, with charity for all" in the Second Inaugural.

MODESTY OF GREATNESS

IN proclaiming that there is not a single great man in the world today Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler displays a degree of modesty which is perhaps to be expected in a man so nearly great as the president of Columbia University. Recollection of some of Dr. Butler's previous expressions of opinion might give him some claim to the rank of the world's greatest pessimist.

EASY TO KEEP COOL (Hemet News)

AMONG the things which a well known scientist believes we may do to keep cool nowadays are the following: "Wear as little clothing as decency permits; don't fret or lose your temper; work as little as possible; keep quiet."

These hints are all right, too. We have tried 'em all, especially the one about working too hard. But we can add a few others that may not have occurred to the scientist. They go something like this: Move to Greenland or some conveniently-located mountain top with a north exposure; recline for long periods at a time on a bed of chipped ice, shifting position every few minutes to insure a fairly equal distribution of effect; don't argue with your wife; don't argue with your husband; don't argue with anybody; if you do argue with anybody, argue in the winter time; plunge into a tub of cold water at 5 a. m. and don't come out till the snow flies; try to borrow a hundred dollars without security at any financial institution (this is one of the most effective methods of producing cold chills in the vicinity of the spinal column that we can think of.) Really, it's no trick at all to keep cool if one goes at it in the right way.

SALARY AND QUALITY (Newcastle Times)

GOVERNOR MARTIN of Florida has notified the legislature of his state that he does not desire any salary increase. He says that $9,000 a year is sufficient when the honor attached to the position is considered. In fact, he says, the salary, so long as it provides a decent living, is the small part of the office. The Governor has the right idea in this matter, and it might be well for advocates of high salaries to ponder over what he says. In most states the salary of judges, both circuit and supreme, has been increased in many instances from 40 to more than 100 per cent in the last few years, but we will leave it to the lawyers whether our judiciary has any better timber than it had five or ten years ago. Men of ability who want to make money do not seek office, but only those who seek honor or have an ambition to serve the government. High salaries have seldom improved the quality of office-holders.

Observations

(By G. B. M.)

WHEN TO ECONOMIZE—

Last week a Sierra Madre business house decided that the summer dullness called for economy and the place to begin was by cutting out advertising expenses. So the customary ad was omitted from the News. Next day two people ask me about it.

"What's the matter with Mr. So-and-So?" ask one of them. "Has he gone out of business? I was sort of in the habit of looking for his ad and couldn't help wondering about him when I couldn't find it."

I reported Mr. So-and-So's explanation for stopping his ad but the reader was not satisfied. He expressed exactly my own idea of the thing when he said:

"That's funny. I should think when business slows up it would be just the time to holler for more business and use ads to drag in all the customers there are."

GOING AND COMING —

Next thing to being located on the line of a railroad, the best possible thing for a town is to have a good live contact with the railroad people. Exactly that is now established with W. R. Humphries as local representative of the Union Pacific. He is directly responsible to Cliff Farmer, the general agent at Pasadena who formerly resided here and has a warm spot in his heart for Sierra Madre. Transportation systems work both ways and the railroad finding good business originating in a town will be likely to bring more people there who may acquire the habit of using its transcontinental system.

TWICE IN THE SAME PLACE—

Last week the News received a request from the offices of a well known printing trade periodical for some specimen copies of the News. They merely indicated they were collecting samples of the best looking weekly papers in California. The samples were duly sent, and the following acknowledgment was received from the publisher:

"Thank you for the copies of recent issues of the News. . . . I plan to use a few of the best first pages of California newspapers that I can find in a coming issue of our publication. I can use yours very well."

That will carry the name of Sierra Madre to the printing trade throughout the United States.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ferry and Messrs. Horner and Shreeve returned from a month's outing in the West Fork, where they reported fishing was excellent.

Rev. Sidney C. Kendall, former pastor of the Congregational Church and noted temperance reformer, passed away.

Mrs. Annis B. Coffey, sister of Dr. Titan Coffey of Los Angeles, was erecting a handsome new residence on LaBelle avenue (E. Montecito).

Greer Caskey came in with the first deer of the season, procured early on the morning of the first day.

The city trustees adopted official grade ordinances for Baldwin and Central avenues. Elevation above sea level at important intersections are as follows: Baldwin and Live Oak 735.20; Baldwin and Central 821; Baldwin and Grand View 934.5; Baldwin and Carter 1052.20; Central and Sierra Madre 896; Central and Canyon 735.50.

Walter Johnson, 19 year old Anaheim boy, signed a contract to pitch for the Washington Americans.

TEN YEARS AGO

Keith M. Walker of Pasadena was appointed principal of the grammar school, to succeed R. W. Maltbie.

Miss Beatrice Ward was awarded a scholarship in the Stickney Memorial Art school of Pasadena. Sierra Madre boys enlisting with Co. B of the California Engineers were Sergt. Harvey Steinberger, Ray Adelmeyer, Robert Clark, Wade Fallis, Ben Medley, John Olsen, Roydon Pool.

The Sierra Madre Civic League was organized with the following officers: Arthur Johnson, Jr., president; H. T. Fennel, vice president; Mrs. H. O. Vogel, 2nd vice pres.; Mrs. W. H. Ingraham, secretary; E. C. Cathcart, treasurer. The purpose was to promote high standards of civic life and community development.

It took a Presidential visit to impress many people with the fact that the Black Hills in South Dakota really existed, but the eyes of the nation are now looking "Hillsward." Yet the Dakotas boast other scenic marvels as great if not greater than the Hills, though singularly unattractive as a place to tarry. The "Badlands" extend across South Dakota and far into North Dakota, and form a maze of strange shapes and gorgeous colorings. The following from the pen of Robert V. Carr, long-time resident of the Hills but now of Sierra Madre, is used by permission of the author:

THE BADLANDS

Bluffs of ochre and brown and red, In varied glory flare, For here is the land of mystery Where God plays solitaire.

A gray plain and a soft mirage, In the blue haze over there, For here is the land of loneliness, Where God plays solitaire.

A muddy butte, and shapes that come And at the sunset stare, For here is the land of forgotten pasts, Where God plays solitaire.

A silence that dwarfs the soul of man, Oh, the silence everywhere! For here is the land of things unsolved, Where God plays solitaire.

"There is nothing new under the sun."

Residents of Sierra Madre who believe that the arboretum idea as applied to Bailey Canyon is of 1927 vintage will have to change their belief, in light of facts "dug up" at a meeting of the Arboretum legal committee, held Friday evening at the Los Angeles City Club building.

F. D. R. Moote was present as a member of the committee, and during the evening he fell to reminiscing, taking the committee members back to 1914-15, when he was mayor of the city.

Mr. Moote is an ardent horticulturist and his home on West Central is surrounded by beautiful trees, shrubs and flowers, while his ranch in the San Jacinto Mountains is likewise a veritable garden spot. Among other activities he is secretary-treasurer and trustee of the California Dahlia Society. It is not strange, then, that during his term of office he originated the idea to make Bailey Canyon a city park, and laid the foundation for just such a movement as is now under such gratifying headway.

After some weeks of arduous effort Mr. Moote secured an appropriation of $250 from the city to begin work in the canyon and with this fund an attempt was made to rid the canyon of the poison oak. Men of all nationalities were put on the job, but about four out of five workmen sooner or later quit work because of infection from the scourge.

However, even in those days $250 did not constitute a limitless fund and the appropriation was soon exhausted. Failing to secure an additional sum, the project was abandoned and the poison oak allowed to pursue its nefarious ways unchecked.

Had that vision been allowed even a modest fruition twelve years ago, the present movement would find most of the arduous work in connection with the project accomplished.

Needless to say, Mr. Moote will be among the most ardent supporters of the present movement, and with the impetus that has even now been acquired there is small likelihood that the plan to make Bailey Canyon one of the renowned beauty spots of California will fail of accomplishment.

Col. Theo. Roosevelt, Jr., may be a hero, but not to Boy Scouts. While on a camping trip recently he spilled a pan of hot grease into his lap.

The mayor of Balboa has decreed that "immodest" bathing suits, at Balboa, shall be taboo. Now for an influx of humanity to see what he means—"immodest bathing suits."

Cutting Out the Worry "What's the result of the examination, doc?"

"You're all run down. My advice is that you lay off golf for a while and get a good long rest at the office."

Judge: "Haven't I seen you before somewhere?"

Defendant: "Certainly. I taught your daughter singing lessons."

Judge: "Fifty years."

When you build your new house remember that some men have dens while others just growl all over the whole house.

Interesting News Notes from Sierra Madre Canyon

H. E. Hedger, engineer of the right of way department of the flood control commission, announced to Canyon residents on Monday that more than 2000 feet of easements along the stream channel had been obtained. Canyon property owners, realizing that the expenditure of the $150,000 contemplated for the improvement will enhance the value of their property, are nearly all strongly in favor of the project. Those interested are anxious that there be no delay so that the work may be completed before the beginning of fall rains. The easements granted to date extend from Grand View Avenue to a point about 300 feet above the former swimming pool.

Clarence L. Virgin, who has just completed his eighth year as business manager for the John E. Brown evangelistic party, returned home from Siloam Springs and Sulphur Springs, Arkansas, on Tuesday. Mr. Virgin was present at the dedication of the California building of the John Brown College at Siloam Springs. A delegation of 60 Californians, headed by Harry H. Godber of Pasadena was present for the occasion. On behalf of the California donors, Mr. Godber presented the building to the president and the board of the college. Following this service ground was broken for the new administration building which is to bear the names of five states. The building is designed in the shape of an aeroplane, the center section to be named Arkansas, the north wing Missouri, the west wing Oklahoma, the east wing Tennessee and the south wing Texas. The governors of these states were present or were represented by some member of their official family at the groundbreaking ceremony. Later a banquet of 900 places was served under a mammoth circus tent. The table design was a miniature of the five states' administration building and those present from the five states were placed as representatives at their state tables.

During the entire day and evening music was furnished by the John Brown College band from Siloam Springs and the Girls' drum corps from the Sulphur Springs school. On July 2 the Bible conference of the International Federation of Christian Workers convened at Sulphur Springs, closing Sunday night, July 7.

Evangelist John E. Brown and family are coming to Long Beach for a short vacation, the first real vacation the well known evangelist has enjoyed in eight years. Mr. Brown will then take up his evangelistic work for the fall and winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Anderson were the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burke of Long Beach, at Marigold Gardens on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Munger have just returned after a two months' trip to Vancouver, B. C., Washington, Oregon and Yosemite.

Mrs. O. P. Bell, her son, Robert Richard and her daughter, Carol Jane of Long Beach, are occupying Rocky Ridge Cottage for two weeks. They will be joined over the week end by Mr. Bell and John Bell.

Mrs. R. B. Isner of Long Beach is spending a two weeks' vacation in Seldom Inn. Mr. Isner, who is engaged in the hardware business at the beach, will join her for the week-end.

Mrs. F. L. Overstreet of Hollywood was a weekend guest of Mrs. L. Haywood of Biz-Z-B-Inn. Mrs. Haywood will occupy this cottage until September.

On Thursday Mrs. Julia S. C. Virgin entertained a group of guests at a delightful picnic luncheon served under the trees at Cadmus Villa. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Royce, Mrs. Russell Case of Pasadena, Mrs. Mark Virgin, Helen Louise, Lavern Hazel and John Robert Virgin of Monterey Park, Mrs. Jennie Virgin, Mrs. Laura De Pugh of Whittier, Mrs. A. H. Capps of Wilmar, Mrs. Ella A. Cadmus and Miss Laura E. Cadmus.

NEW HIGHWAY SOON WILL BE COMPLETED

The new coast highway soon to be completed from San Diego to San Francisco is destined to become California's most famous main artery of travel. Recently a strip has been completed between Long Beach and San Juan Capistrano. Thruout its entire length it closely skirts the blue Pacific—at no point in this particular stretch being more than a half mile from the water. Most especially is the scenic beauty marked at a point about four miles below Laguna, in the Lewis H. Lasley, Three Arch Tract. Here the coast line is very rugged, being a succession of rocky points and small bays of still blue water. The exposure is to the south and the highway is right at the edge of the ocean. To the north are high hills.

Even the fishing is best there—the larger denizens seeming to like the warmer water. Many a nice catch of sea bass, barracuda, and yellow tail is taken home Sundays from the deep blue water at the rocky points. While in the sandy bays the swimming is excellent, being warm, free of surf, and safe from rip tides.

The highway is readily accessible from points inland, there being good intersecting boulevards coming into it at Long Beach, Seal Beach, Balboa, Laguna, and San Juan Capistrano. This makes possible a circle drive for a one-day outing that is very attractive.

College Dean Now Favors Athletics

Five years ago Dr. Lewis E. Ford, dean of the Dental College at the University of Southern California was radically opposed to athletics for his students. This fall Dental students will have a separate training field comprising a gymnasium, football field, track, baseball courts, golf courses etc. on which to play.

The change of opinion of Dr. Ford was brought about by the career of Clarence "Bud" Houser, world's record holder in the discus and captain of the 1926 track team. Houser was one of the first Dental students to participate in track and had to have special permission to do so. The fact that Houser was at the head of his class scholastically for his four years opened Dr. Ford's eyes.

Charles Borah came along in 1926 to become the sprinting sensation as a freshman and register the highest first year class work average made in six years.
Dr. Ford says that he has learned that athletics make men better students. Now the Dental College has compulsory participation for every man enrolled in work. A staff of coaches and physical education men have been placed in charge of the work and the huge plant for the Dental athletics only has just been completed.

Last fall for the first time Dental had its own teams in baseball, basketball, soccer, tennis, and golf. Men who want to compete on the Trojan varsity teams must have special authorization. Leo Guichard, 1927 baseball captain, was a dental student.

The lot or parcel of land mentioned in said bond, and to be sold is more particularly described, to-wit: Lot 1, Mountain View Tract as per Map Book 7, Page 89, Records of Los Angeles County.

A Game Worth Playing

Let's play "we are glad," it's a thrilling game.
And the playing will be sweet;
Let's say "we are glad," say it joyfully Every time we meet.
Let's play "we are glad" and say we are glad,
(It need not, of course, be true.) But I'll venture to say "we will be glad" Before the game is through.
—Vivian Yeiser Laramore.

There are coming into prominence at the moment a few subtle changes in the mode that are important. First costumes must fit to be chic and must be individual to be distinctive. The fashion changes are chiefly within the dress and not so much in the silhouette. The slight difference is that skirts suggest more fullness at the bottom. The waistline is more snug and higher and sleeves and shoulders are more snug fitting, too. The neckline in the majority is V, square or triangular. Hems are 3 to 5 inches deep and slip stitched, or the hem omitted and a binding used, or a double band 1 3/4 to 5 inches wide applied to the lower edge of the skirt.

The bolero, it seems, is to become a fashion classic, so repeatedly does it appear in many smart models.

Many summer joys have the accompanying trials of added spots and stains on clothing—indeed the one continuous problem is how to keep apparel presentable in spite of dust, oil and perspiration. Of course, any fabric which can be "tubbed" is little care, but the silks, crepes and novelty colored goods with their delicate coloring require special handling and extreme care in cleaning. Only the best modern methods of dry cleaning can successfully handle such fabrics.

The Sierra Madre Tailors and Dry Cleaners do very successful dry cleaning of both men's and women's garments. Your most treasured dresses may be sent here with perfect assurance—and you will find their prices very reasonable. Telephone Blue 194.

Fringe is the newest and most graceful trimming for afternoon, dinner and evening frocks and wraps.

Plain linen combined with printed linen is fashioning the smartest of the new sport ensembles.

French peasant embroidery is in high favor with many smart women. Velvet and satin are the main background for these embroideries, but even the printed silks are so embellished.

Are you becoming acquainted with Footie's Stationery and Toilet Goods Shop in the Patio of the hotel building? If you haven't already visited this recently new addition to Sierra Madre's business community, do so soon. You will be delighted with the many attractive things displayed here—the better toilet requisites, including all of the products of Coty, the famous Harriet Hubbard Ayer beauty preparations and Cor's intriguing perfumes and powder. And you will find many more attractive selection of stationery anywhere—from the lovely boxed paper to the commercial and pound papers. And, too, there are gift books and novelties as well as greeting cards, bridge scores and tallyes.

The life and use of bathing caps may be greatly prolonged by carefully drying the inside and dusting them with talcum powder to prevent sticking together.

To prevent curtains from whipping dusty screens draw a thread or twine cross-wise from thumb tacks pressed in the casing.

Your home should come first. Keep it attractive and modern by replacing your old furnishings with new ones occasionally. Every week The Sierra Madre Furniture Company at 14 No. Baldwin is adding the newest furnishing to its display. You are cordially welcome to visit this store frequently and merely "browse around."

And Mr. Tom Tyler, who was formerly manager of this enterprising business and is now owner as well, is always glad to help you solve your home furnishing problems, even to the extent of personally taking you to Los Angeles largest wholesale houses to make selections of pieces you do not find on the floor. This courtesy enables you to make a great saving on desired pieces as well as giving you unlimited choice of all household furnishings. Telephone Blue 219.

When taking dishes to a picnic or church supper or when leaning them for parties, put a small square of adhesive tape on the bottom and put your initial or name on with a pencil.

Slip covers of washable materials for pan holders can be easily washed often and slipped back on the pad. This prevents the necessity for making or bringing new holders frequently. The covers are more easily laundered than a thick holder.

Summertime brings with it the delights of vacation, camping, sports at the seashore and mountain trips. But it also brings added burdens to the one who oversees the family laundry for now everyone is wearing light colored garments which soil easily. The modern and scientifically equipped Troy Laundry of Pasadena is efficiently caring for this extra burden of many housewives. By "sending out" your washing you will enjoy many added hours of leisure. So even if you do not patronize a laundry at any other time—do so thru the summer months when the washing is the largest and hardest to do. Mr. Roy Edwards is representative in this community of the reliable Troy Laundry. Phone Red 42.

A novel flower holder is made by cutting a large potato in half lengthwise and punching several holes through one-half of the potato with an ice pick. Insert the flower stems in these holes, place the potato in water and the flowers will appear as if growing naturally. In arranging flowers never crowd them into vases or containers. A few flowers well spaced so as to give a natural look are infinitely more attractive and restful than masses of flowers so crowded that the beauty of the individual blossom is lost.

These warm summer days nothing is so "just right" and so healthful to serve for dessert as the many delicious ice creams, ices and sherbets made by the Crescent Creamery Company and sold and delivered to you by Pettitt's, Kersting Place.

Their special flavors in ice cream are: Orange-macaroni, vanilla, fresh strawberry and black walnut; in sherbets, apricot, lime, strawberry and pineapple. Frozen fruit salad is another unusual flavor, combining luscious cubed fruits with whipped cream or mayonnaise. And then they make individual services of ice cream, beautifully formed to represent flowers and fruit. And, too, these intriguing ice cream cakes which are decorated to your order and are made in three sizes, large, small and individual. And a new product is the "picnic sundae" frozen in individual containers and sold complete with spoon and napkin. These give a choice of two flavors of ice cream topped with crushed fruits. You may leave orders for any of these frozen desserts and also many others (ask about them) at Pettitt's News Stand and Candy Store. Telephone Green 85.

Vacation time for the children should not be entirely play time. Enough useful work should be sandwiched in to make playing more enjoyable and enough worthwhile reading done to develop a taste for good literature. Never allow a child to read promiscuously. Do not leave books lying around that are not fit food for the immature mind of a child.

There are many magazines written especially for children. There are encyclopedias and sets of books written to amuse and instruct at the same time. These books cost little more than badly chosen literature and the investment is one that will pay for itself many times over. It is never too early to encourage a child to start its own library and clever book plates with the child's own name on them may be purchased at small cost. A special place in the library or bookcase should be set aside for each child's books.

A balanced diet which includes plenty of fresh, pure milk is the health secret of many. For fresh rich milk is the greatest health food in the world. Authorities say drink milk at meal times and between meals, too.

Milk bottled and delivered to you by the Sierra Madre Dairy is guaranteed absolutely fresh and pure, from tuberculin tested cows. Two deliveries a day are made of raw milk, cream, whipping cream, cottage cheese and butter, and also a special milk for invalids and babies. Telephone Main 242.

Whipped cream is especially good when flavored with vanilla and cocoa. Add cocoa to powdered sugar and add to the cream after it is beaten.

A really delicious bread pudding that will make friends even with the foes of the old fashioned bread pudding is made from left over cake or cookies and seasoned with spices instead of lemon or vanilla. Devils food, gingerbread, ginger cookies, spice cake and even bran muffins may be used with excellent results.

Two eggs, beaten light, two cupsful of milk, two cupsful of cake crumbs, sugar if necessary—and any liked spices to taste. Raisins, prunes, dates or figs may be added. Bake in a slow oven until firm and serve with a hard sauce flavored with vanilla.

With warm weather really here everyone is planning picnics and camping trips. Often such an outing means an orgy of cooking to the busy housewife. But there is no need for such hurried preparations if one plans the picnic menu with the many delicacies and tasty goodies now sold ready to pack and take along.

The Norris Grocery and Department Store, corner of Lima and West Central, has anticipated appetites of all sorts, from the healthiest to the most fastidious. By making your selections here you will have no cooking bothers. Let them help you enjoy your outing from start to finish. Telephone Main 205 and Main 12.

When serving lettuce to children shred it very fine, sprinkle it with a little powdered sugar, a few drops of olive oil and the juice of half an orange. You will find they will like it much better "dressed up" so.

A butterfly salad is made by cutting a slice of canned pineapple in halves and placing a lengthwise slice of banana between them. The banana represents the body of the butterfly and the two halves of pineapple forms its wings. Small strips of pimento may be used for its antennae and a raisin chopped up for its eyes.

THE POWER PLANTS

Eat for power the garden greens and other vegetables. They are the original power plants, stored with sunshine. The child should be taught to enjoy the sun foods. They give him power to grow from their store of vitamins and minerals. Usually before a child reaches his first year he is given the juice from cooked spinach to supply iron and vitamin and also of the tomato which is highly anti-scorbutic. Carrots, celery, spinach, cauliflower, turnips and cabbage are rich in calcium-bone material of which a child needs daily as much as two grown men. The green vegetables are especially rich in iron.

The green leaves of cabbage may be given almost as soon as spinach if the hard part is cut out. Other vegetables are found valuable such as string beans, green peas, potatoes, asparagus tips. But no vegetable can out-rank the plebeian cabbage, the lettuce, spinach and tomatoes in vitamins.

Vegetables are unequaled as "brooms for sweeping" the digestive tract. They are effective, yet do not irritate as do coarse brans do at times, especially if irritation is already present. The juices of vegetables are also laxative.

But poor cooking can defeat the success of the best gardener. Cooking vegetables in large amounts of water and then discarding it loses coveted minerals. Vitamin C is destroyed with long cooking in open vessels. Spinach cooked with soda loses much of vitamin B, a growth promoter.

For children cut the vegetables in small pieces and cook quickly in a small amount of water. Baked and steamed vegetables lose less minerals. All vegetables should be sieved for the young child. Add juice and pulp to milk to make a nutritious cream vegetable soup. Later on well cooked vegetables with seasoning of salt and butter will be accepted. Careful cooking and seasoning is as important as the selecting of sour vegetables.

Canyon Wins Visitors For Big Project

Famous Writer Is Among Guests of Arboretum Committee

On Friday a group of district workers, including Mrs. R. Stewart, Mrs. Fletcher H. White, Mrs. John Osgood, Messrs. George B. Morgridge, B. M. Paulding, Joe R. Eastwood and Arnold Kruckman made a trip through the Arboretum at Bailey Canyon.

On Saturday a group consisting of Mrs. Osgood, Mrs. White, Mrs. A. R. Hinton, Mrs. Elizabeth Seantleburg, Miss Clara Sykes, Mrs. Arnold Kruckman, Messrs. R. S. Corlett, Arnold Kruckman and B. M. Paulding conducted a very distinguished visitor in the person of Mrs. John H. Manning through the Arboretum. Mrs. Manning writes under the name of Frances Duncan and is the acting editor of Orchard and Farm, the Sunday horticultural supplement of the Los Angeles Times.

Mrs. Manning is a garden and landscape authority of international fame. For a number of years she was the garden editor of the Ladies Home Journal. She worked with Madame Montessori and has written a number of popular books on gardens, parks, flowers and landscaping which have been widely read and translated into many different tongues. Her most original and striking landscaping work has been done in laying out home grounds in the dual capacity of beauty spots and children's playgrounds. Mrs. Manning is a member of the Arboretum general committee and is cooperating actively in the various tasks involved. She made her first visit to the Arboretum Saturday and was extraordinarily enthusiastic. She proposes to write an article in her magazine shortly as well as others in eastern publications.

After the trip through the Arboretum she was the guest at an informal luncheon served at the Mogul tea garden at which Mr. Humphries acted as host for the society. In addition there were present Meses. White, Hinton, and Kruckman, and Messrs. Corlett and Kruckman.

On Saturday afternoon Supt. Frank Shearer of the Los Angeles Park System made another very thorough survey of the lower section of the Arboretum in order that he may perfect his plans for its development. Mr. Shearer is chairman of the Arboretum Committee. Before accepting the offer made by Mr. Charles G. Adams to act as landscape engineer and ar-to spare, together with sickles, scythes or any other implements they may have. Those who can't spare the time will be requested to contribute a dollar or more to hire others who may do the labor in their place. This method is expected to make the city as free from brush and grass fire peril as possible, and is expected to save the community many potential dollars of damage.

During fire prevention week the ladies of the community will be asked to furnish the volunteer workers picnic lunches and to serve them picnic style on the grounds where they are working. Mr. Humphries requests that those who are able at this time to determine when they may contribute their quota of time notify him as soon as possible. He also will be glad to hear from the ladies who will furnish the picnic lunches.

More details concerning the campaign will appear in these columns next week.

Iowans Arrive For Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Stanberry arrived on Wednesday from Mason City, Iowa, and are guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert S. Bovard, 354 North Canyon Avenue. Mrs. Bovard and Mrs. Stanberry are sisters. Mr. Stanberry, who is a prominent attorney in his home city, is a nephew of Rec Stanberry of 108 North Baldwin. Mr. and Mrs. Stanberry drove thru in their sedan in eight days and report a very comfortable trip.

Work on the $130,000 Congregational church at Claremont is progressing rapidly. Financial support for the project is all that can be desired.

chitect for the Arboretum, Mr. Shearer wishes to study the problems very fully and carefully and hold several conferences with Mr. Adams. At the conclusion of these studies and conferences he will call another meeting of the distinguished experts who constitute the Arboretum Committee.

During his visit Saturday Mr. Shearer had a conference with Rev. Father Jerome, the Provincial of the West of the Passionist Fathers, who came from the headquarters of the order at Chicago and visited the lower part of the Arboretum with Mr. Shearer. Father Jerome was very pleased with what he saw and confirmed Father Peter's generous offer of a gift of land to the Sierra Madre Botanical Society.

On Saturday evening Mr. Shearer was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Humphries in their home on West Carter Avenue.

Wednesday noon Mr. Humphries was the guest of the Lamanda Park Chamber of Commerce and made the talk of the occasion, using the Arboretum as his text. He impressed upon his audience that the Arboretum was located in Sierra Madre by a happy accident of topography, soil and climate, but that it belonged just as much to Lamanda Park as it belonged to Sierra Madre. He made clear the fact that the Arboretum is just as much the property of all the world as Stanford University belongs to humanity at large. His remarks made a deep impression and drew enthusiastic approval.

Excursions into the Arboretum were inaugurated this week. Several small parties were conducted as far as the waterfall by Mr. Humphries or Mr. Kruckman, or their associates. The parties are kept very small in order that the trip may be made in common comfort and to enable the person responsible to keep a vigilant guard against any fire hazard.

These little excursions are very pleasant. It is cool in the canyon and the climb is gradual and mostly over a fair trail. There is no real hardship anywhere. The meandering stroll along the bed of the book, through glades with bay trees and maples, lofty and leafy, with the mellow light coming thru the noble cathedral arches of tender green, is balm to jaded sensibilities and a driven spirit. It is always a debate whether the vistas are more lovely ascending than they are coming down the trail.

Those who wish to go with one of these excursions should wear old clothes, stout, sensible high boots and old gloves as protection against poison oak which has not yet been removed.

Those who wish to go should telephone Mr. Humphries or Mr. Kruckman at Main 180.

Fire Alarm Method Here Is Changed

New System Is Adopted To Facilitate Work of Firemen

Give the firemen a chance! When the fire siren blows don't rush to the phone at once to inquire where the fire is, and don't rush out on the street with your car. Either act may seriously hinder the firemen in reaching the fire at a time when seconds are important.

Under a new rule of the fire department, when a fire alarm comes into the telephone office alarms will be relayed only to Fire Chief Richards and to the Sierra Madre Garage where the engine is located. The practice of phoning to several members of the department will be discontinued. When the firemen hear the alarm they will have to phone in and inquire the location of the fire. This makes it important that the wires be kept clear so far as possible so that the firemen will not be prevented from getting the necessary information and starting for the fire.

Chief Richards explains that the reason for the change in system of notification is to permit getting the engine under way sooner. It has been the practice to hold it until several members of the department arrived to man it. Two men can take the engine out, and the firemen are sometimes nearer the fire than they are to the garage. In case of a small blaze the early arrival of the apparatus is often of more importance than it would be to wait for a larger crew.

Miss Marie Annas sailed yesterday for Portland, Oregon, where she will visit her grandmother, Mrs. Henrietta Kock and her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gill. Her mother, Mrs. Jacob Annas, is leaving for the north in a few days, where she will join Marie and her husband, who made the trip about two weeks ago. Miss Annas will remain in Portland several days, after which she will continue on to Seattle. She and Miss Lorraine O'Bannon who is leaving for Seattle next Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Bannon, expect to make the return trip together. Mr. and Mrs. Annas will remain in Seattle for a time to attend a religious conference.

Sierra Madre was represented at the Hollywood Bowl on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Harold Davenes sang with the Los Angeles Oratorio Society at the "Italian Night," Pietro Cimini conducting. She is singing again on August 9th, when Eugene Goossens of London, England, and Rochester, New York, will conduct the Oratorio Society in four interesting numbers.

Business Is Good

When I Work!

Some folks think that book-keeping is the most important part of business life. This I admit, but customer-keeping is far more important. The word "service" today has a broader meaning than ever before. One of the features of my work is the giving of intelligent service irrespective of the amount of money involved.

Yes, Business (with a big "B") is good. I've landed two more families for this foothill city and I expect to announce next week the coming of a family which will be a feather in the cap of Sierra Madre.

Neighbor McLellan has a good idea: Print something about your city on your envelopes, thereby telling the world. I'll be glad to furnish ideas along these lines. No charge.

ARE YOU DOING YOUR BIT? Concentrated effort, like Campbell's soup, is the secret of civic progress. The soup comes to us in concentrated form, attractively put up for us to put down, and well advertised. Follow the same idea for your city—work and think together, dish up your city in an attractive manner—then tell the world.

FIRE! FIRE! FIRE! Grass, oily rags in garages, are at this time risks. We are surrounded with risks. Remove them—suggest to your neighbor the things that will protect him and his property—be sure you have done your bit first, of course.

Yes, Business Is Good

"No foolin'." Insurance picking up. That's the way to get business—go after it; pick it up!

REAL ESTATE. This department keeps us busy. Rentals, sales, loans—there's activity in all branches.

'Humpservis'

Employment Bureau, Travel Information auspices National Auto Club.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT I have been appointed agent for the Union Pacific Railway. The little office (the bank is opposite) can now supply travel helps, Pullman tickets and reservations. Steamship and foreign travel tickets.

NO VACATION THIS YEAR Looks like no vacation this year for "Hump." Guess I'll take a day off and have one of our local real estate agents drive me around and show me the town.

And the name is Humphries

The bank is directly across the street.

I wonder if you watch my windows—get the habit. P. S.: I must have listings of low-priced lots—have two buyers waiting; both want to build, that means business for lots of us. Bring in your listings.

Dry Cleaning That Satisfies

Summer is dry cleaning time. Soil shows up so quickly on light, filmy dresses.

Perspiration soon destroys fabrics unless they are cleaned often.

Our methods cleanse each portion of the fabric—stop the action of acid elements in perspiration and give your garment a new lease on life. And best of all it is revived—renewed in appearance, too.

We were able to buy wheat this week at a price that will make it possible to sell to you at a reasonable figure. It is a good quality and we have plenty of it.

"Can you help me with my arithmetic lesson, daddy?" "The first problem is: A carpenter was paid three dollars a day, and—"

"That sounds more like ancient history than arithmetic."

Now that green feed is getting scarce why not try Nichols All-Mash that contains alfalfa leaves and blossoms? This is a complete food and is giving satisfaction wherever used.

Two battered old wrecks were sitting on a park bench. One remarked: "I'm a man who never took advice from anyone." "Shake, brother," said the other. "I'm a man who followed everybody's advice."

If you are looking for a good mash at a low price we can recommend Poppy Brand—in 90-pound cotton sacks for $2.50.
